

Korea Box

The Korean Studies Initiative at The Ohio State University is pleased to offer the Korea Box. It can be borrowed for use by educators, librarians and community organizations for up to two weeks. The box contains an array of items from Korea such as clothing, traditional toys, games, and various other objects. The box also contains a description of each item as well as background information regarding its use. Although materials in the box may be used for display purposes, students are encouraged to handle and inspect all of the items.

Individuals interested in borrowing the Korea Box are asked to complete the information below and return the form by fax, mail, or e-mail to:

The Korean Studies Initiative will mail the box, free of charge, directly to schools or organizations wishing to use it. The Korea Box must be returned to the Korean Studies Initiative at the expense of the borrower. We encourage schools and organizations to reserve the box in advance whenever possible, as there are only a few boxes available. At times, it may be necessary to reduce the length of time an organization may borrow a box to accommodate a higher demand.

The Korean Studies Initiative will contact you to confirm your reservation. Thank you!
