

2020-2021 K-12 Global Fellowship Program

“Intersection of Coffee and Tea Around the World: History, Culture, and Global Impact”

The Area Studies Centers from The Ohio State University’s Office of International Affairs invite all pre- and in-service K-12 teachers to apply for the 2020-2021 K-12 Global Fellowship Program, “Intersection of Coffee and Tea Around the World: History, Culture, and Global Impact”. This five-session program will engage K-12 teachers in a series of guided readings, lectures, and group discussions over the course of the 2020-2021 academic year. K-12 teachers will learn about the history, culture, and politics surrounding coffee and tea consumption in East Asia, Latin America, and Eastern Europe/Eurasia under the guidance of regional experts. Participation will depend on the completion and acceptance of a program application and attendance at all sessions is expected. Each participant will receive 1.3 CEUs and text resources for completing the program. Readings will be sent to accepted participants two weeks prior to each discussion date below:

Enarson Classroom Building*, Room 160, 9:00AM-12:00PM on the following Saturdays:

- August 29, 2020: Pre-program orientation and networking session
- September 12, 2020: East Asian Studies Center presents “Tea Culture in East Asia: A Multi-disciplinary Approach” with Dr. Mari Noda (Ohio State U.)
- October 24, 2020: Center for Latin American Studies presents “Posso te oferecer um cafezinho? The Impact of the Coffee Industry on Brazilian Sociocultural, Economic, and Political Landscape” with Dr. Eder Coelho Paula & Dr. Michele Saraiva Carilo (Ohio State U.)
- January 23, 2021: Center for Slavic and East European Studies presents “Central Asian Foodways” with Dr. Russell Zanca (Northeastern Illinois U.)
- February 26, 2021: Final session focused on pedagogy and incorporating aspects of the different regional presentations into K-12 curriculum

This program is free for all pre- and in-service K-12 teachers. Apply for the 2020-2021 Global Fellowship Program by Sunday, May 31, 2020 at: https://go.osu.edu/2020_2021_gfp

*Enarson Classroom Building, 2009 Millikin Rd, Columbus, OH 43210. Parking available in the Tuttle Park Place Garage, 2000 Tuttle Park Pl., Columbus OH 43210. Teachers will be provided with a paid parking token.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY