

Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships 2020-2021 Competition for Undergraduate Students in STEM Fields for Chinese, Japanese, Korean and other East Asian languages

The East Asian Studies Center (EASC) at The Ohio State University (OSU) is seeking applications for fellowships for Summer 2020 and Academic Year 2020-2021 under the U.S. Department of Education's Title VI Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowship program. All applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Undergraduate FLAS awards are restricted to students in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) fields; for a list of relevant majors, see <https://undergrad.osu.edu/majors-and-academics/more-ways-to-explore/pathway/3> or consult EASC with any questions. Applicants must also be of junior or senior standing at time of fellowship and have successfully completed two years of East Asian language study at the college level before the start of the fellowship. Additionally, undergraduate applicants are required to have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.4.

LANGUAGE ELIGIBILITY: Awards will be made through EASC for Chinese, Japanese, or Korean. Applications for other East Asian languages (e.g. Tibetan, Uyghur, Uzbek, Mongolian) will also be considered. If applying for an award in more than one language, separate applications for each language/area study focus must be submitted. Applicants are responsible for contacting appropriate language departments and/or summer language programs and establishing that their requested level of language instruction will be offered in 2020-2021.

SUMMER (SU) 2020 FELLOWSHIPS:

SU fellowships are expected to carry a stipend of $2,500 and an award for tuition and partial fees (up to $5,000). SU fellowships are awarded for intensive language study only. Intensive programs eligible for support must encompass the equivalent of a full year of language study with at least 120 contact/classroom hours in instruction for advanced language levels and 140 hours for beginning and intermediate language levels and offer at least 6 weeks of instruction. Individualized instruction and audited classes are ineligible for a Summer FLAS. SU fellowships may be used for intensive language study at OSU or at other institutions including study abroad. In such cases, applicants must provide itemized data on tuition, fees, and room and board expenses in the Language Instruction Budget Estimate section of the online application. Summer award recipients must register for a minimum of six credit hours of language courses during the award period. They are also required to meet with the FLAS Coordinator prior to the start of their program as well as take a language proficiency entrance and exit exam before and after their program of study. In addition, recipients must submit a post-fellowship online report to the U.S. Department of Education, and participate in brief bi-annual surveys on their job placement and use of language skills for eight years post-graduation. U.S. government regulations require all recipients of a FLAS travel award (available in some circumstances for summer fellows) to comply with the provisions appearing in the Fly America Act. Specifically, all tickets for overseas flights purchased with U.S. Department of Education funds must be on a U.S. carrier, unless the traveler is able to meet specific exception requirements. If a Fellow fails to meet any of these requirements, support may be withheld and/or he/she will be required to return funds given to them, including payments for tuition and fees.

PRIORITIES: In awarding Summer 2020 fellowships, consideration will be given to applicants with academic merit and professional potential. Highest priority will be given to candidates proposing to study at the advanced level (Level 3 or higher) who also demonstrate financial need as defined in Part F of Title VI of the Higher Education Act of 1965. Second-highest priority will be given to students planning to study at the advanced levels (Level 3 or higher) before entering government service.

AWARD NOTIFICATIONS: Fellowship competition results will be announced in March 2020.

ACADEMIC YEAR (AY) 2020-2021 FELLOWSHIPS:

AY fellowships are expected to carry a stipend of $5,000 and contribute up to $10,000 towards tuition and fees. Subject to approval, AY FLAS fellowships may also be used for foreign language and area studies at other U.S. or foreign institutions. Because FLAS Fellowships are language and area study-based, all AY award recipients must be enrolled in at least one three-credit, graded, classroom-taught language course and at least one three-credit, graded, classroom-taught area studies course each semester during the tenure of the fellowship. AY award recipients must also be full-time fellows (12 credit hours per semester). In order to gauge each student's language progress during the period of their fellowship, recipients are also required to take language proficiency entrance and exit examinations at the beginning and end of the academic year. FLAS Fellows are also required to meet with the FLAS Coordinator prior to the start of each semester to discuss their course load and program of study. In addition, all recipients are required to submit a post-fellowship online report to the U.S. Department of Education, and participate in brief bi-annual surveys on their job placement and use of language skills for eight years post-graduation. If a Fellow fails to meet any of these requirements, money may be withheld and/or he/she will be required to return the money given to them including payments for tuition.

PRIORITIES: In awarding Academic Year 2020-2021 fellowships, consideration will be given to applicants with academic merit and professional potential. Highest priority will be given to candidates proposing to study at the advanced level (Level 3 or higher) who also demonstrate financial need as defined in Part F of Title VI of the Higher Education Act of 1965. Second-highest priority will be given to students planning to study at the advanced levels (Level 3 or higher) before entering government service.

AWARD NOTIFICATIONS: Fellowship competition results will be announced in March 2020.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

The APPLICATION DEADLINE is Monday, February 3, 2020 at 4:30 PM for both Summer 2020 and Academic Year 2020-2021 fellowship applications. Applicants are eligible to apply for both summer and academic year fellowships. No consideration will be given to applications that are incompletely or improperly filled out.

A complete application includes the following:

1. The completed Online Application Form which can be accessed from <https://easc.osu.edu/fellowships/undergrad/flas>.
 2. An up-to-date OSU Advising Report of all courses taken and grades received, and Official Transcripts from any other previous college level study at other institutions (attached in your online application).
 3. A Resume or CV (two pages maximum; attached in your online application).
 4. A one-page single-spaced Statement of Intent (attached in your online application).
 5. A Budget Estimate section in your online application, with relevant supporting materials attached.
 6. Three Letters of Reference from faculty members familiar with the student's work, including:
 - a. One letter from a STEM faculty who can speak to the applicant's qualifications in STEM, and preferably to how the applicant plans to combine STEM with an international career
 - b. One letter from a language faculty at the college level to speak to applicant's language ability
 - c. One letter from a faculty in any field that can speak to your commitment to international studies
- Applicants fill out the Student Section of the FLAS Reference Form and provide it to their referees. Referees complete the reference and submit via email to easc@osu.edu by Monday, February 3, 2020.
7. Applicants must also separately submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to OSU's Office of Student Financial Aid by their priority deadline of Saturday, February 1, 2020 in order to be considered for a FLAS Fellowship. The FAFSA can be accessed at <http://sfa.osu.edu>.
