

THESIS TRACK PLANNING GUIDE

For requirements for the Thesis Track of the EAS MA Program, consult the EAS MA Student Handbook. In addition to the basic requirements of the program, this track requires students to:

- 1) Produce a substantial research paper (generally 40-50 pages in length) employing their non-native East Asian language as a research tool.
- 2) Defend the thesis orally before the MA advisory committee.

STEP 1: Select your MA advisory committee members.

Deadline: End of the first academic year of study for students in the regular track; end of the first semester of study for students in the Mid-Career Professional Track.

Advisory Committee: 1) Lead advisor _____
 3 members required 2) _____
 3) _____
 4) _____

STEP 2: Produce a written thesis prospectus.

Deadline: By the end of the first term of the student's final year of study

- Thesis prospectus submitted to MA advisory committee members
- Thesis prospectus submitted to EASC office

Approval from advisor that thesis prospectus meets requirements:

Signature: _____ Date: _____

STEP 3: Register for thesis-writing credit and complete thesis draft.

Thesis track students may register for up to two terms (total of 6 credit hours) of thesis-writing credit without special permission. However, the student must secure written permission from all members of their advisory committee to register for more thesis-writing course credit for it to count toward the minimum degree requirements. This request must be approved by the EAS Graduate Studies Committee.

STEP 4: Set up and complete your thesis defense.

It is the responsibility of the student to proactively manage this process, reaching out to committee members and following up when necessary. If assistance is needed, students may contact the graduate program coordinator in the East Asian Studies Center.
