

Foundational Seminar: Crossroads of EAST ASIA, STEAM, and SEL

VIRTUAL SEMINAR FOR K-12 EDUCATORS & ADMIN FROM: AL, DE, IL, KY, LA, MD, MI, MN, OH, PA, WV

JULY 10 - 21, 2023
(Monday - Friday)
10 a.m. 1 p.m. (ET) (online)

Join us for a virtual journey that will introduce East Asia's diverse cultures and environment while building and enhancing your tool chest of teaching resources for the classroom. Focusing on the regions that comprise present-day China, Japan, and Korea, participants in this free online seminar will engage with experts and other educators in the field to explore major trends, global issues, and historic foundations that shape East Asian society. Through hands-on activities, films, lectures, and discussion, the cohort will learn about East Asia's diverse cultures to enhance teaching resources in the classroom. A broad range of innovative teaching materials will be shared, engaging social-emotional learning (SEL), education in Science, Technology, Engineering, the Arts and Mathematics (STEAM), social studies, ELA, and other cross-curricular approaches to society and culture.

36-hour online seminar includes:

- Orientation session May 15, 2023 (evening, online)
- July 10 - 14 and July 17 - 21, 2023, 10 a.m. - 1 p.m. (ET, online)
