

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

EAST ASIAN STUDIES CENTER

BRINGING

EAST ASIAN STUDIES

INTO THE CLASSROOM

Community Colleges, Liberal Arts, and CCP/AP Courses

MAY 22: MONDAY NIGHT PLENARY EVENT

Ode to My Father (Gateway Film Center)
6 p.m. 1550 N. High Street., Columbus, OH 43210
Free film screening and networking reception
(Korean food reception and parking provided)

MAY 23: CONFERENCE PANELS

FAWCETT CENTER (free parking)
2400 Olentangy River Rd., Columbus, OH 43210
8 a.m. Registration and networking
9 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. Featured speakers and lunch

East Asia Strategies and Connections

University/Community College Partnerships
Supporting Global Competencies
ASIANetwork – Liberal Arts Colleges
Working with University Libraries

East Asia on Campus – Success Stories

Symposium – Columbus State Community College
Study Abroad – Sinclair Community College
Speakers – Lakeland Community College
Other Opportunities – Lorain County Community College

Incorporating East Asia Content into Existing Programs

Asian Studies as a Bridge Between 2- and 4-Year Institutions
Grant Funded Modules
East Asia Modules for World Civ/History Courses
East Asia Curriculum for Films/Online Resources

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

MAY 22, 2023: 6 – 9 p.m.

GATEWAY FILM CENTER

MAY 23: 8 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

FAWCETT CENTER

Stipend available for attendees, see registration for details!

Registration required by
May 15

Registration and further information available at:

go.osu.edu/eaconf2023

This event is sponsored in part by a US Department of Education Title VI grant to the East Asian Studies Center at The Ohio State University.

Additional Sponsors at The Ohio State University: East Asian Studies Center, Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures, Department of History, Office of International Affairs.

Questions? eaasc@osu.edu 614-292-3345