

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

EAST ASIAN STUDIES CENTER

2024 THE INSTITUTE FOR KOREAN STUDIES PRESENTS:

"PRESENT PORTRAIT OF KOREA: KEY WORDS DEPICTING SOCIETAL CHANGES AND CONCERNS"

TAEHO KIM

Pusan National University

This presentation offers an overview of contemporary South Korean society through a keyword analysis. By examining key terms and concepts, it aims to provide insights into the prevailing social trends, cultural dynamics, and issues that define the current landscape. The analysis encompasses various aspects, including societal changes, cultural shifts, and emerging challenges, offering a comprehensive understanding of the multifaceted nature of present-day South Korea. This presentation contributes to a deeper comprehension of the complex interplay between language, culture, and society in the evolving context of South Korea. This presentation discusses the implementation and effects of community service-learning (SL) in the pedagogical context of Korean as a Second/Foreign Language (KSL) at higher institutions in N. America.

Free and open to the public

easc.osu.edu/events/iks-target-language-lecture-taeho-kim

This event is sponsored by a U.S. Department of Education Title VI grant to The Ohio State University East Asian Studies Center

16
APRIL

Tuesday
4:00-5:30pm
Hagerty Hall 351