

The Institute for Korean Studies
presents:

Benedict Park: "Bridging Economies: Asian Corporate Investments in Ohio"

FA 24 IKS Lecture

Ohio has emerged as a key destination for East Asian corporate investments, driving economic growth and fostering innovation across a wide range of industries. In this lecture, Benedict Park, Senior Manager of Asia Business Development at JobsOhio, will explore the evolution of East Asian investment in the state, highlighting key contributors such as Japan, the largest foreign investor in Ohio, Taiwan, which plays a crucial role in strengthening the Midwest's trade relations, and South Korea, whose recent investments, including LG Energy Solution and LG Chem, signify a burgeoning partnership with Ohio. Park will provide an overview of the historical investment landscape and offer insights into future collaborations that aim to ensure Ohio's continued economic prosperity through international partnerships.

September 19, 4:00-5:30pm

Ramsayer Hall 115/Zoom

Contact: Professor Danielle Pyun

pyun.7@osu.edu

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

EAST ASIAN STUDIES CENTER