

Green Days

(Ahn Jae-huun, 2010)

Set in the late 1970s, Green Days is a coming-of-age story of three Korean high schoolers. Aspiring runner Yi-rang gives up the sport after taking an intentional fall to avoid the embarrassment of losing. Soon she meets Cheol-soo, who dreams of becoming an astronaut, and Soo-min, a transfer student from Seoul. Together, they navigate friendship, romance, hopes, aspirations, and growing pains. A Q&A with the director follows the screening. In Korean with English subtitles. (98 mins., DCP). Join us for a reception at 6 PM in the Wexner Center lobby before the screening and hear Ahn Jae-huun in person at 5 pm. The day's events are presented in conjunction with the annual, citywide Cartoon Crossroads Columbus festival.

September 26, 7:00pm

Wexner Center for the Arts

Ahn Jae-huun's visit is cosponsored by Ohio State's Office of Academic Affairs; Department of East Asian Languages and Literature; Department of Art; Department of Design; Department of Theatre, Film, and Media Arts; Advanced Computing Center for the Arts and Design; East Asian Studies Center; Institute for Korean Studies; and Wexner Center for the Arts.

This event is supported by an Ohio State University Office of Academic Affairs Visiting Artist Grant