

Freeman Foundation East Asia Internship Scholarship

Ohio State's East Asian Studies Center, with generous funding from the Freeman Foundation, is offering scholarships to select undergraduate students for a transformative internship experience in Japan, South Korea, or Taiwan.

Details

- Salary: Internships are unpaid, but students are given a generous scholarship (up to $6,500) to help offset expenses such as international and domestic travel, program costs, insurance (in country), food, and housing.
- Timeframe: May – Mid-August 2025 (in country).
- Term: Minimum 6 weeks, typically 8 weeks. 40 hours of work per week.

Eligibility

- Must be a full-time undergraduate student enrolled in a degree-seeking program in ANY major.
- Applicants must complete at least 30 credit hours of coursework before the start of the internship.
- Must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.
- Participants are required to take a 1-credit, post-internship course in Autumn 2025.
- You do NOT need to have a background in an East Asian language for most placements.

To learn more about available programs and placements, and register for an online information session, go to: easc.osu.edu/internships