

The Silk Road

Examine the textiles that gave the Silk Road its name, and travel across the trade routes that connected the cultures of Afro-Eurasia for centuries. The Silk Road exhibit weaves together the brilliant colors and feather-light textures of silks from China, India, the Islamic world, and Europe, telling the story of silk and the history of movement across empires and time. Historic textiles, jades, and jewels from the 1400's to the present illuminate the origins of commerce and connections in the Old World and provide design inspiration for today. Featuring luxurious gowns, religious banners, brocades, saris and the designer fashions of Oscar de la Renta and Dior.

Greater Columbus Convention
Center (Columbus, OH)
Ohio Center B&C Meeting Rooms

March 13 - 15: 9 a.m. - 8 p.m.

March 16: 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Free

easc.osu.edu/silkroadexhibit

This exhibit is held to coincide with the Association for Asian Studies annual conference. Registration for the conference is not required to attend the exhibit.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY