

Security and Stability in Contemporary US-East Asian Relations

Thursday, March 26, Mason Hall Rotunda

11:00-12:15 The Weaponization of Interdependence: Korea's De-Risking between the US and China
Prof. Victor Cha (Georgetown), moderated by Prof. Mitch Lerner (Ohio State)

12:15-1:15 Lunch (must RSVP by March 23)

1:30-3:00 The US and Japan in the Present and Future: A Roundtable Discussion

Panelists include:

Richard Herrmann (Ohio State), moderator
Dr. Paul Sracic (Hudson Institute)
Dr. William Chou (Hudson Institute)
Prof. Kazuhiro Maeshima (Sophia University)
Prof. Seiko Mimaki (Doshisha University)

Prof. Michiyo Obi (Nanzan University)
Prof. Kazutoshi Suzuki (Sophia University)
Prof. Saori Tezuka (Nanzan University)
Dr. Wakako Ito (Japan Forum on International Relations)

This workshop is co-sponsored by the East Asian Studies Center and the Japan Forum on International Relations, with support from the Mershon Center for International Security Studies and the Center for International Business Education and Research (CIBER).

Learn more and register

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

EAST ASIAN STUDIES CENTER