

Challenges and Opportunities in High School East Asian Language Education: A Roundtable Discussion

K-12 teachers are invited to attend a roundtable discussion on teaching East Asian languages in high schools. Panelists will include K-12 teachers, faculty from Ohio State, and pre-service teachers. Audience discussion of issues and ideas related to teaching Chinese, Japanese, and Korean will be explored during this interactive roundtable. This event is part of the American Association for Teachers of Korean (AATK) annual conference. Attendees of the roundtable will receive free admission to the conference (and can attend other panels) on June 19 (only), as well as breakfast, lunch, and a parking voucher.

Date: Friday, June 19, 2026

Time: 1:00-2:30

Place: Hagerty Hall

For FREE registration, use this code

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
EAST ASIAN STUDIES CENTER

AATK
북미한국어교육학회
American Association of Teachers of Korean