

Building Connections: 45 Years of Legal and Cultural Engagement with Japan

David Cook
Honorary Consul of Japan in Columbus

David W. Cook leads Vorys' Immigration practice. He was recently named Best Lawyers' 2027 Columbus Lawyer of the Year in Immigration Law. His practice focuses on representing businesses and individuals in all areas of immigration law. Cook serves as Honorary Consul of Japan in Columbus. He is a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association and has served on both national and Ohio chapter committees. He frequently presents on employment-related immigration matters. This presentation will trace his 45-year journey of professional and personal connection with Japan. Through stories and insights, this talk will share how his experiences shaped Cook's approach to legal practice, fostered lasting relationships, and contributed to bridging cultures. Attendees will gain perspective on the value of cross-cultural engagement and the importance of building trust and partnerships across borders.

October 8, 2026
5:30-7:00 pm
Hagerty Hall 180

Register to attend
this in-person talk.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
EAST ASIAN STUDIES CENTER

This event is organized by the Institute for Japanese Studies and is co-sponsored by the Oshaberi Kai - The Japanese Conversation Club and the Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures Undergraduate Student Organization.