

Bringing East Asian Films into the Classroom

Explore ways to incorporate East Asian Studies into the curriculum at all levels, from K-12 to college. Join Julia Koblinska, University of Cambridge, who developed film guides for the following films with a different theme for each:

- A Taxi Driver (2017): Recording History and the Memory of South Korea's Contentious 1980s
- Ode to My Father (2014): War, history and family in South Korea
- The Wandering Earth (2019): Genre & Geopolitics and China's Place in the World
- Your Name (2016): Catastrophe & Connection and Japan's 3/11
