

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

INSTITUTE FOR JAPANESE STUDIES

JAPANESE STUDIES IN MY LIFE AND CAREER

Alumni Panel Discussion

Ohio-Japan Alumni Network

Saturday, March 3

2:00 – 4:00 pm

Panel: 2:00-3:15pm, Networking: 3:15-4:00pm

Page Hall, Room 10

1810 College Rd., Columbus, OH 43210, The Ohio State University

Jonathan Hartley

Co-founder and CTO, Innovate IP

Previous Positions: Senior Systems Developer/Engineer, The Ohio State University;

Japanese to English Translator, Hitachi Technical Communications

B.A. (Japanese), The Ohio State University

Christopher Ramdeen

Assistant Attorney General, Ohio Attorney General

JD - Moritz College of Law, The Ohio State University

B.A. (Japanese/Creative Writing), The Ohio State University

Study Abroad: Tenri University

Aaron Schroeder

General Manager, Daishin Industrial USA Company

Previous Position: Curriculum Coordinator, CtheD Language School (Japan)

B.A. (Japanese), The Ohio State University

Alumni from OSU programs talk about their paths taken and lessons learned, including:

- How did the study of Japanese or Japan-related programs help you or your career?
- How would your life and career have been different if you had studied a different or no foreign language?
- What part of Japanese studies did you find most interesting or challenging?
- What advice can you give someone thinking about going into your career field?

Website: <https://easc.osu.edu/events/ijs-alumni-panel-mar-3>

Free and open to the public RSVP (helpful for planning)

This event is supported by the OSU Institute for Japanese Studies and U.S. Department of Education Title VI Grant to the OSU East Asian Studies Center.

Janet Stucky Smith | Institute for Japanese Studies | stucky.7@osu.edu | 614-292-3345 | <http://easc.osu.edu>