

NATIONAL CONSORTIUM FOR TEACHING ABOUT ASIA (NCTA)

INTERSECTIONS: EAST ASIA and STEAM

VIRTUAL SEMINAR FOR K-12 EDUCATORS

JUNE 15 - 26, 2020 (Monday - Friday)

1:00 - 4:00pm (EST) (online)

TAUGHT BY PROFESSOR ANN MARIE DAVIS

The Ohio State University

This free professional development course is an introduction to the cultures of China, Japan, and Korea, with special emphasis on the ideas and cultural developments that make East Asia a distinct region. The seminar is designed to encourage and facilitate K-12 teaching and learning about East Asia in World History, Geography, Social Studies, Art, and World Literature. Media specialists, librarians, art teachers, world language teachers, and others are also well positioned to help foster a place for East Asia in your schools. Some class time will be devoted to group discussions of teaching materials and strategies appropriate for different teaching levels to incorporate or enhance your curriculum about East Asia.

No previous background in East Asia is assumed for this free introductory seminar with many benefits (resources, networking, stipend -see website for details).

36 hour seminar includes:

- Virtual Orientation session in May (evening)
- June 15 - 19 and June 22 - 26, 2020, daily 1:00 - 4:00pm
- Synchronous and Asynchronous sessions designed to optimize time together
- Follow up workshop in Aug/Sept 2020 (Saturday) - virtual option available

Application deadline: APRIL 30, 2020 (or when filled)
