

Abenomics: "Japan's Escape from its Lost Two Decades"

Takatoshi Ito

Columbia University
International and Public Affairs

© MIT Press 1992

Brad Richardson

(September 6, 1928 - January 16, 2015)

- Professor, Department of Political Science
- The Ohio State University Distinguished Scholar
- Institute for Japanese Studies, Director (1985 – 2002)
- East Asian Studies Center, Director (1977-1980 and 1999- 2002)
- Honorary Consul General of Japan for Ohio (1999-2004)
- Order of the Rising Sun (2008) Government of Japan

Welcome Remarks

Gil Latz

Vice Provost for Global Strategies and International Affairs

Professor of Geography

The Ohio State University

Abenomics: "Japan's Escape from its Lost Two Decades"

Takatoshi Ito

Columbia University
International and Public Affairs

- U.S. Department of Education Title VI
at the East Asian Studies Center
- Japan Ministry of Foreign Affairs
(Consulate General of Japan in Detroit)
- Brad Richardson Memorial Fund

ICS

IJS

IKS

Consulate-General of Japan in Detroit

 在デトロイト日本国総領事館

外務省

Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan

Brad Richardson Memorial Fund

buckeyefunder.osu.edu/richardson2019

Gold Sponsor
Buckeye Funder

Brad Richardson Memorial Fund:

The fund supports academic and outreach activities that promote Japanese Studies on campus and that enhance the interest, knowledge and discourse on Japan-related topics in the academic communities and general public. Until the contributions to the fund reach the endowment level, the fund shall function as a current-use fund.

Buckeye Funder (Feb. 1 – Feb. 28, 2019)

buckeyefunder.osu.edu/richardson2019

(or by check)