

When East Meets West

Cultural Exchange along the Silk Road

Friday, September 29, 2017 | 8:30AM – 4:00PM

Columbus State Conference Center

315 Cleveland Avenue, 4th Floor

To register, email jnardone@csc.edu

Free and open to the public • Breakfast and lunch provided

Sessions include:

Silk in Byzantium: From Justinian to Eirene the Athenian

Dr. K. Sandy Drakatos - Professor, Humanities Department,
Columbus State Community College

Silk Roads, Real and Imagined: New Perspectives of Central Asian Commercial History

Dr. Scott Levi - Associate Professor, History Department,
The Ohio State University

Stories Untold: Reconnecting East and West through a Dunhuang Diamond Sutra

Dr. Christina Burke Mathison - Lecturer, History of Art,
The Ohio State University

Non-Being & Emptiness: An Introduction to Buddhist Doctrine & Meditative Practice

Conrad Robinson - Adjunct Instructor, Humanities Department,
Columbus State Community College

