

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

Presented by: Institute for Korean Studies

Bringing Korea into the Classroom

A workshop for Ohio 6-12th grade teachers

June 7-8, 2018 (9am – 5pm)
The Ohio State University campus

This workshop offers 6-12th grade Ohio teachers an introduction to the rich history and culture of Korea. Through a series of talks held over two days on The Ohio State University campus, this free program is intended to provide teachers with the knowledge, resources, and expert guidance to allow them to incorporate or enhance curriculum about Korea into their classrooms.

Learn about:

- Korea's history and culture (including K-Pop)
- Korea and the International Arena

Benefits:

- Stipend ($200) after completion of workshop and lesson plan
- Parking tokens and lunch (Korean food)
- Educational materials (including books)

Deadline: March 31, 2018

<http://easc.osu.edu/events/k12koreaworkshop2018>

Co-sponsors: Korea Foundation, U.S. Department of Education Title VI Grant to the East Asian Studies Center (OSU), Department of History (OSU), Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures (OSU)

Contact: Janet Stucky Smith: stucky.7@osu.edu or 614-292-3345

