

Working for a Japanese Company:

How to prepare? What to expect? What skills needed?

Chie M. Schuller

Manager, Language & Communications Dept.
THK Manufacturing of America, Inc.

Tess Weinberg

Corporate Translator/Interpreter
THK Manufacturing of America, Inc.

Wednesday

September 13, 2017

5:30pm – 6:30pm

Enarson Classroom Building, Room 160
(2009 Millikin Rd.)

Some topics to cover:

- What is a Japanese company looking for? What kind of students are in demand?
- What is it like to be an interpreter or translator?
- In addition to Japanese language, what else is necessary to get a job? What skills are needed?
- What should students do in preparation for their career?
- What are the keys for success in the job after graduation?

<http://3.bp.blogspot.com>

Free and open to the public

This event is made possible by the Institute for Japanese Studies and by a U.S. Department of Education Title VI grant to The Ohio State University East Asian Studies Center.

<http://www.translationsservicesdelhiindia.com>

Contact: Janet Stucky Smith | Institute for Japanese Studies
stucky.7@osu.edu | 614-292-3345 | <http://easc.osu.edu>