

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
EAST ASIAN STUDIES CENTER

IJS SPRING 2019 LECTURE SERIES PRESENTS:

THE ARTIFICIAL BODY IN JAPANESE POPULAR CULTURE, FROM PUPPET THEATER TO MANGA AND BEYOND

CHRISTOPHER BOLTON

Professor, Comparative and Japanese Literature
Williams College

Artificial Bodies have fascinated audiences of Japanese popular culture since the origins of mass commercial culture in the Edo period. Dr. Bolton examines the artificial body across several historical moments and media.

Free and open to the public
easc.osu.edu/events/ijs/c-bolton

This event is co-sponsored by OSU Libraries and is supported in part by a U.S. Department of Education Title VI grant to The Ohio State University East Asian Studies Center

28
JANUARY
4:00-5:30 PM
Thompson Library 165