ICS presents the "China in Transition" Lecture Series

Why China Established the Asia Infrastructure Investment Bank

Friday, February 24, 2017

4:00-5:30 pm

Mendenhall Lab 115

125 S Oval Mall

Daniel C.K. Chow

Frank E. and Virginia H. Bazler Chair in Business Law
Moritz College of Law
The Ohio State University

Abstract: Professor Chow will discuss how China set up the Asia Infrastructure Investment Bank as a rival to the U.S.-dominated World Bank and how China is challenging the leading role of the United States in international trade. The lecture will discuss the history of the World Bank and how China perceives that it was subject to shoddy treatment by the United States in the governance of the World Bank; and why China felt compelled to establish an alternative.
