

INSTITUTE FOR CHINESE STUDIES

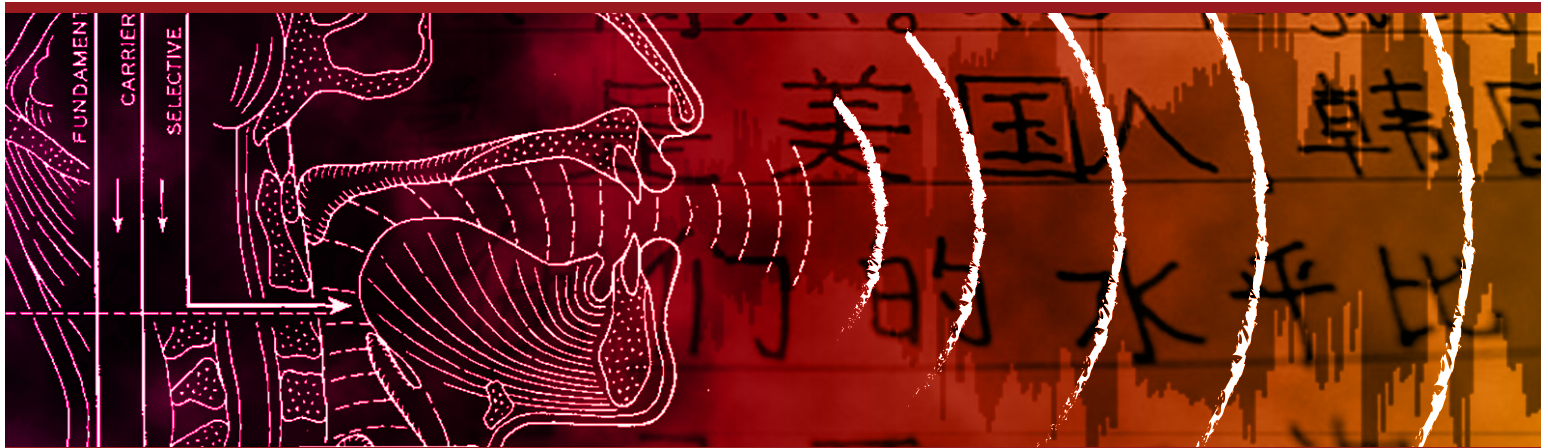

俄亥俄州立大学中国研究所

Title VI NRC/ FLAS East Asian Studies Center

part of the Work of Culture series

ics.osu.edu

ICS Graduate Forum New Horizons in Chinese Linguistics Research

Session A Chair: Prof. Mineharu Nakayama (DEALL)

Session B (10:30-11:30) Chair: Prof. Donald Winford (Linguistics)
(11:30-1:00) Chair: Prof. Marjorie K.M. Chan (DEALL)

8:00 Refreshments & welcoming remarks

8:15 Seth Wiener (DEALL) "The Linguistic Genesis of Online Chinese Subversive Puns"

8:45 Ya-ting Shih (Education) "Perception of Mandarin Fricatives by Mandarin-Taiwanese Bilinguals"

9:15 Jing Yang (Speech & Hearing) "Perception of English Vowels by Monolingual and Bilingual Mandarin Listeners"

9:45 Jia Yang (DEALL) "CFL Learners' Use of Formulaic Expressions in Casual Conversation: An Exploratory Study"

10:15 Tea/Coffee Break

10:30 Alex Ratté (DEALL) "Contact-Induced Phonological Change in Taiwanese Min"

11:00 Litong Chen (DEALL) "Cantonese-style Putonghua (广式普通话): A Contact Linguistics Perspective"

11:30 Tsz-Him Tsui (Linguistics) "Information-Theoretic Approach to Cantonese Tone Variation (and lack thereof)"

12:00 Yutian Tan (DEALL) "Tone Change in the Siyi (Yue) Dialect: The Case of the High-Rising Diminutive Tone"

12:30 Rongbin Zheng (DEALL) "Chinese-English Code-Switching: Phonological and Morpho-Syntactic Constraints"

1:00 Closing Remarks

Friday, 20 May 2011

8:00 am - 1:00 pm

Hagerty Hall 388

No registration required, all are welcome

with opening remarks by Prof. Marjorie Chan (Director, ICS) &
Seth Wiener (President, GACL)

Co-Sponsored by:

For more information, please contact:
Jeffrey Chan | chan.184@osu.edu | 614-247-6893
This event is sponsored in part by a U.S. Department of Education Title VI Grant