

EASC Career Event:

Honda R&D Americas, Inc. Company Visit - Simultaneous Interpretation Meeting Observation

Tuesday
October 30, 2018
3:30 - 6:30pm

Honda R&D Americas, Inc.
21001 State Route 739, Raymond, OH 43067

Following the simultaneous interpretation demonstration on the OSU campus on Sept. 7, students are now given the opportunity to see simultaneous Japanese interpretation at an actual management meeting on-site at Honda R&D Americas, Inc. in Raymond, Ohio (only 40 minutes from the OSU campus). This is a real company meeting, including technical issues, which is a great chance to see interpreting in action. After the meeting, students will be able to ask questions of the Japanese engineers about interpreting.

3:30 - 3:45pm: Check in (no late arrivals)
4:00 - 5:30pm: Management Meeting (technical issues)
5:30 - 6:30pm: Q&A with Japanese Engineers

This opportunity is open to OSU students. Please be sure to register (required for admittance) and sign the confidentiality agreement. Space is very limited, RSVP early. Students are responsible for their own transportation and need to arrive by 3:45pm at the latest.

Website & RSVP: <https://easc.osu.edu/events/easc/hondardvisit2018>

For OSU Students, RSVP required for visit. Space very limited, register early.

Note: Event in Raymond, OH (about 40 min from OSU campus).

Co-Sponsors: Honda R&D Americas, Inc.
East Asian Studies Center
U.S. Department of Education Title VI Grant to the East Asian Studies Center

Event is free & open to OSU students. RSVP required for event.

Contact: Janet Smith | East Asian Studies Center | smith.12674@osu.edu | 614-292-3345 | <http://easc.osu.edu>