

THE “HANDOVER” OF HONG KONG – LIFE BEFORE AND AFTER THE TRANSITION

Steve Barclay, director of the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office in New York, will share his insight into the country's economic, social and political transition from British colonial rule to the People's Republic of China.

When: Monday, August 24 at 2 p.m.

Where: Tanya R. Rutner Room, 3rd floor, Ohio Union

Director Barclay is responsible for promoting and strengthening the business, trade and cultural ties between Hong Kong and 31 eastern states in the United States. Prior to his appointment in August 2014, he served as director of the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office in Sidney for four years. Director Barclay has held a wide variety of roles in the Hong Kong government since 1979.

Supported by the Office of International Affairs, East Asian Studies Center, Institute for Chinese Studies, China Gateway, Fisher College of Business and the Columbus Council on World Affairs.