

Japanese Language Teacher Workshop & OATJ Annual Meeting 2014

Too many choices, where do I start?

Sorting through the abundance of authentic materials and technology options to find the ones that work with Japanese language

Please join us for a day of navigating the many choices for technology to find the ones that work for the Japanese language. There will also be time for networking with the Japanese Language Program educators (K-16) in Ohio and beyond. The workshop and meeting are held on a Sunday to encourage as much participation as possible.

Agenda:

- Study Resources: Self-study, material preparation, and test preparation
- Assessment: gather data through response systems/in-class technology
- Authentic Materials and resources
- Advocacy and Networking
- OATJ Business Meeting

- Date: Sunday, Nov. 2, 2014
- Time: 9:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
- Location:

Wittenberg University
Springfield, OH 45504

Please register for the Nov. 2 Workshop and Meeting at: <http://oatj.wordpress.com>

Registration is free for OATJ members and $10 for non-OATJ members (lunch included).

Registration Deadline: Oct. 23! (Registrations after this date may not include lunch.)

Presenter:

Elizabeth (Betsy) Lavolette is the Director of the Language Resource Center at Gettysburg College. Recently, Dr. Lavolette was a Language Technology Consultant at Michigan State University's Center for Language Teaching Advancement (CeLTA) and Center for Language Education and Research (CLEAR). Her research interests include computer-assisted language learning (CALL), online learning, and language assessment. She won the 2014 AT&T Faculty – Staff Award Competition in Instructional Technology at Michigan State University for her online course. To learn more about her background and her blog, please visit: <http://betsylavolette.com/>

Co-sponsors:

Wittenberg University: Admission Office, East Asian Studies, Dept. of Foreign Languages,
Dept. of Education, and International Studies
Ohio Association of Teachers of Japanese (OATJ)
The Ohio State University: Institute for Japanese Studies and East Asian Studies Center
Japan Foundation Center for Global Partnership
U.S. Department of Education Title VI Grant