The Chinese Culture Box

The Institute for Chinese Studies at The Ohio State University is pleased to offer the Chinese Culture Box, which can be borrowed for use in schools, libraries and community organizations for up to two weeks. The Culture Box contains information and lessons about Chinese history, language, art, culture, toys and games, and includes Chinese artifacts such as a puppet kit, music CD, abacus, books, Chinese chess set and more! We also have smaller kits available that contain the artifacts and information for one particular subject or activity, which may be more convenient for subject-oriented lesson plans. Although materials in the box may be used for display purposes, students are welcome to handle any of the items. The Institute for Chinese Studies will mail the box or separate kits free of charge directly to the school or organization wishing to use the items; however, they must be returned at the expense of the borrower. Although the Institute for Chinese Studies has compiled several boxes and kits, we encourage schools and organizations to reserve them in advance.

If you are interested in borrowing any of the Culture Boxes or kits, please complete the following information and return by fax, mail or e-mail.
